Entrepreneurship can be quite stressful, but starting at university allows a student to gain the necessary life skills and confidence to make it in the "real" world, by gaining hands-on experience with entrepreneurial tutors and lecturers, and by taking advantage of free resources for university members. Student entrepreneur organisations, like the Oxford Entrepreneurs, allow students to meet like minded people, in an atmosphere of creativity and broad-mindedness.

Not everyone has the qualities it takes to be an entrepreneur or even wants to be an entrepreneur. Even people who possess the necessary qualities are not necessarily made happy by being entrepreneurs. People who have entrepreneurial characteristics are often happier working for someone else. They use their entrepreneurial skills to
