Forget Me Nots Poems To

Nor sound is heard save mountain rill, When all around bids peace be still, Forget me not. When the first star with brilliance bright, Gleams lonely o'er the arch of night; When the bright moon dispels the gloom, And various are the stars that bloom, And brighten as the sun at noon, Forget me not.

Forget Me Not by Ann Plato - Poems | Academy of American Poets

Forget-Me-Nots. Jean Starr Untermeyer. For Amy Lowell We walked through garden closes Languidly, with dragging Sunday feet, And passed down a long pleached alley, And could remember, as one remembers in a fairy tale, Ladies in brocade, and lovers, and musk. We surprised tall dahlias That shrugged and turned scarlet faces to the breeze.

Forget Me Not- Poem. by Susan Mosquera. Forget Me Not Forget me not as you go about your day And when the winter wind howls my name Forget me not in the lonely darkness of the night And in the warm brightness of the sun light Forget me not in the freshness of the morning dew And in the spring when life begins anew For I am in you and you are in me

Forget Me Not- Poem - My Forever Child

Forget me not, for dreams of love live there. Our words and sighs are echoes in that mist; ecstatic breath in momentary bliss. Remember how I hungered for your kiss? We sailed a rocky boat clear out to sea, then set the boat ablaze in urgency. How dare my dreams to be eternity! Recall the chiming carousel we rode.
