trying this kind of stuff now. Let's see how it goes. Mina Ashido moved at a hurried pace as she stepped off the train, grimacing a bit as she looked at the clock on her phone. She didn't even bother to say "excuse me" as she weaved her way somewhat forcefully through the crowd of people around her as she made for the exit to the station.

"Just one night" is perfection. The way Allyson and Willem see each other after all this time, after one year of fantasizing about each other, of constantly being tormented by the idea that they lost their chance of true love, they are finally able to look into each other's eyes and express what they feel.
