I loved reading both of The descended books (Plague of Angels book 1) and never thought I would be rooting for the Queen of Hell. But the character was so well written and a complex mix of bad and good! Also very interesting look at Heaven, Earth, Hell, Believe in nothing world, and universe. It is intense and author is very talented!

Scorn of Angels (The Descended, #2) by John Patrick Kennedy

First time author John Patrick Kennedy, in his first novel Plague of Angels (The Descended), has definitely hit the mark with his re-imagining of the relationship between God and his angels. Many will find it controversial, devout Christians will no doubt find it insulting, but in all cases he challenges your view of faith and Christianity.

Book review of Plague of Angels - Readers' Favorite: Book ...

Trigger warning: These novels (both Plague of Angels and Scorn of Angels) contain subject matter some will find incredibly disturbing. The Descended series is philosophically complicated. A lot of atheists would likely loathe it, a plethora of Christians would likely want to burn it, and some agnostics might well say "heck yeah!"
