West Coast Modern: Architecture, Interiors & Design ...

West coast contemporary is one of my favorite design styles of residential homes. While this style is often referred to as West Coast modern, that's not correct. West Coast Modern was a style in the 1940's and 1950's. The West Coast Contemporary style softens the purely modern look by adding warmth to both the exterior and interior with extensive use of wood.

West Coast Contemporary reflects classic cabin designs with a modern twist. The mixture of classic design and modern innovations depends on the designer. Some buildings are more modern, and some are more traditional. But natural raw appearances are always seen creating a very recognizable and original architectural style.
